Sts. Simon and Jude, Apostles
Feast Day: October 28

In the lists of the Apostles found in the New Testament. Simon is called "the Zealot" and he is probably so identified as to distinguish him from Simon Peter. That he should be called the Zealot may be because he might have, at one time, belonged to the Jewish Zealot party. Jude is called "Judas, son of James" in Luke's Gospel, but is called Thaddeus in Matthew's. He is said to have been a relative of Jesus. It is far from certain where both of these apostles preached after Pentecost: some sources claim that Simon preached in Persia (modern Iran) and Babylonia (now Iraq), while Jude preached in Palestine and the Near East. Both Simon and Jude were martyred in the first century, and both have been commemorated in Rome on the same day since the ninth century. Jude may also have been the author of one of the epistles in the New Testament. He is the patron of those in despair and for hopeless situations. A shrine dedicated to Saint Jude is found in the rear vestibule of our church.

PRAYER BEFORE AN ELECTION

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community. We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty. We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, Men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender. We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom. We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace. We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
