“Our churches are called a ‘house of God’, and this in very deed they are, since God Himself dwells in them and is always to be found in them. He is surrounded continually by a countless host of Angels who serve Him, who adore Him, who worship Him, who praise Him, who offer our prayers to Him.”

— Fr. Martin von Cochem

VATICAN SPLENDORS A Journey Through Faith and Art The Vatican has sent the people of California a special gift ...

VATICAN SPLENDORS: A JOURNEY OF FAITH AND ART

opened at the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library and Museum on March 6 and will close on August 28.

The exhibition is one of the largest Vatican collections ever to tour North America with over 200 objects, including personal mementos from both His Holiness Pope Benedict and Pope Saint John Paul II.

From the sights and sounds of the grand Basilica to a touchable cast of Saint John Paul II's hand, it's a true "insiders" view of the Vatican, including spiritual, artistic and ceremonial treasures. It's a lesson for us all to better understand our history and faith presented in both English and Spanish.

For a limited time, our parish will have a special opportunity to purchase tickets at a $5.00 discount. Enter discount code "Parish" when purchasing your tickets either online or at the Admission desk.
